

Food Network Canada orders a fourth season of Lone Eagle Entertainment's popular series *You Gotta Eat Here!

Series hits 100 episode mark!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(TORONTO, ON – January 23 2014) – Still in production on the third season of their mouth-watering half-hour original television series entitled You Gotta Eat Here!, Lone Eagle Entertainment Ltd. (www.loneeagle.tv) is thrilled to announce that Food Network Canada has ordered a fourth season of 26 episodes. This brings the network order up to 106 episodes.

In each episode of You Gotta Eat Here!, food-obsessed funny man John Catucci (@JohnCatucci), crisscrosses Canada on his quest to find the country's most delicious, over-the-top, must-try food. John visits three cities and restaurants where he meets the fascinating characters serving up the most irresistible dishes. At each stop, John rolls up his sleeves and dives into the kitchens of these colourful restaurants to help them cook their signature dishes. John meets the owners, chefs and patrons who make each restaurant a destination you would insist on dragging a friend to. He hears their stories, learns their family traditions and experiences their passion for good food and huge portions. The fourth season will also find John south of the border.

"You Gotta Eat Here! continues to entertain our growing international audiences," says Michael Geddes, Executive Producer of You Gotta Eat Here! and President of Lone Eagle Entertainment. "We are thrilled that we now top 100 episodes of this series."

You Gotta Eat Here! is produced by Lone Eagle Entertainment. Michael Geddes and Sheldon Teicher serve as the Executive Producers, alongside Rachel Horvath as Supervising Producer and Steven Mitchell as Series Producer.

JOHN CATUCCI is a talented Canadian sketch comedian, singer and actor. He is a member of The Minnesota Wrecking Crew and the musical comedy duo The DooWops, with David Mesiano. He has numerous feature film and television credits but says he has never eaten this well while on the job.
